Providing instruction via email or fax

We offer an email and fax service that allows you to send us instructions on your account. Any instructions which are submitted to us by email or fax must have your signature or that of an authorised signatory on your account.

By using our service, you are taken to have agreed and understood that neither we or any part of the Australian Unity Group accept any responsibility or liability for any payment or action we make based on any instruction (even if not genuine) that we receive by email or fax bearing your account number, a signature which is apparently yours, or that of an authorised signatory on your account.

This means that you cannot make a claim for such a thing as a fraudulent email or fax redemption request made by someone who has access to your investor code and a copy of your signature. You use the service entirely at your own risk.

Enquiries

If you have any enquiries, they should be directed to us, rather than to your nominated Australian financial institution.

All your personal information held by us will remain confidential, except for information that may be provided to our Australian financial institution to initiate the drawing to your nominated account, or information that may be disclosed to a third party as required by law. Information may also be provided to any entity within the Australian Unity Group to enable the DDR to be effected as required by law.

Disputes

- If you believe that a drawing has been initiated incorrectly, you should raise the matter directly with us.
- If you do not receive a satisfactory response from us, then please follow up with your nominated Australian financial institution regarding your claim.
- You will receive a refund of the drawing amount if we cannot substantiate the reason for the drawing.

Note: Your nominated Australian financial institution will ask you to contact us initially to resolve your disputed drawing prior to involving them.
