Direct Debit Request (DDR) Service Agreement

Australian Unity (Our) commitment to you

- Where you request a one off debit, the payment will be drawn from your nominated account on the date we accept your application.
- Where the due date for a drawing falls on a non-business day, it will be drawn from your account on the next business day.
- We will keep the details of your nominated account and financial institution private and confidential.
- We will investigate and deal promptly with any queries, claims or complaints regarding debits.
- We may vary any details of this Direct Debit Request (DDR) Service Agreement at any time by giving you at least fourteen (14) days notice.

Your commitment to Australian Unity (us)

- It is your responsibility to check with your nominated Australian financial institution to confirm that direct debits are available on your account as direct debiting through the Bulk Electronic Clearing System (BECS) may not be available on all accounts.
- It is your responsibility to ensure that the authorisation on this 'Additional Investment Direct Debit Request' Form matches the signing instructions on your nominated Australian financial institution account.
- It is your responsibility to ensure that there are sufficient cleared funds in the nominated Australian financial institution account on the drawing date.
- It is your responsibility to cover any charges resulting from the use of the direct debit program. This may include transaction fees charged by us or your nominated Australian financial institution due to dishonoured drawing.
- It is your responsibility to check your account details which you have provided to us are correct by checking them against a recent account statement from your Australian financial institution.
- It is your responsibility to check with your Australian financial institution before completing this Form if you have any queries about how to complete this Form.

Changes to the arrangement

If you want to make changes to the drawing arrangements, please notify us in writing at least five business days prior to the drawing date. These changes may include:

- deferring the drawing;
- altering the details of the drawing;
- stopping an individual debit; or
- cancelling the DDR completely.

Enquiries

If you have any enquiries, they should be directed to us, rather than to your nominated financial institution.

All your personal customer information held by us will remain confidential, except for information that may be provided to our financial institution to initiate the drawing to your nominated account, or information that may be disclosed to a third party as required by law. Information may also be provided to any entity within the Australian Unity Group to enable the DDR to be effected as required by law.

Disputes

- If you believe that a drawing has been initiated incorrectly, you should raise the matter directly with us.
- If you do not receive a satisfactory response from us, then please follow up with your nominated Australian financial institution regarding your claim.
- You will receive a refund of the drawing amount if we cannot substantiate the reason for the drawing.

Note: Your nominated financial institution will ask you to contact us initially to resolve your disputed drawing prior to involving them.
