

Lifepan Investment Bond (LIB) – Australian Ethical investment option limited service period 25 November to 12 December

24 November 2022

We have been advised that Australian Ethical has a planned limited service period from 25 November 2022 to 12 December 2022 to carry out updates to its managed funds.

This means that during this time there will be a delay in pricing transactions for the following LIB investment option:

- Australian Ethical Diversified Shares Fund.

Although we will continue to receive new applications, additional investments, withdrawal requests, and switch requests as usual, these will not be priced until after the limited service period.

Importantly, all of these transactions will be priced as per normal, based on the date they were received. The funds for any withdrawal requests will not be paid until after the limited service period has ended.
